VCISO360™

On Demand Cybersecurity Leadership for SMBs

Every organization needs a Chief Information Security Officer (CISO)—someone to set strategy, align with compliance, and defend against evolving threats. But for most small and mid-sized businesses, hiring a full-time CISO is neither affordable nor realistic.

That's why SecureGovernComply® created VCISO360™, a Virtual CISO service that delivers executive-level security leadership at a fraction of the cost. Backed by our governance, compliance, and security expertise, VCISO360™ provides the strategy, structure, and oversight you need to manage risk, meet compliance obligations, and strengthen customer trust.

VCISO360™ is a flexible, cost-effective solution that brings senior cybersecurity expertise directly to your business.

Strategic Security Leadership

Guidance on building and executing a cybersecurity strategy aligned to your business goals.

Risk & Gap Assessments

Comprehensive evaluations of your security posture to identify vulnerabilities and prioritize remediation.

Compliance Alignment

Support for PCI DSS, HIPAA, NIST CSF, GDPR, CMMC, and other regulatory frameworks.

Policy & Program Development

Creation and maintenance of security policies, incident response plans, and governance processes.

Vendor & Technology Oversight

Review and manage security technologies, third-party vendors, and service providers.

Executive & Board Reporting

Clear, business-friendly communication of risks, compliance status, and program progress.

Flexible Engagement Models

Fractional, part-time, or project-based services to fit your needs and budget.

Why Choose VCISO360™ from SecureGovernComply?

Hiring a full-time CISO can cost $200K+ annually.

With SecureGovernComply, you get:
